NEVER SURRENDER.

We are strong in the faith of Democratic triumph in November, for we have not yet come to distrust the intelligence and the patriotism of the American masses. We believe that Radicalism has attained the zenith of its power, and that its course of violence and oppression is about to be checked by the determined voice of an injured and outraged nation. That Seymour and Blair will be elected President and Vice President of the United States, in spite of all the desperate and unscrupulous efforts of the supporters of Grant and Coltax, we most confidently believe, in common with the majority of intelligent and well informed Democrats throughout the country.

But while we regard success as reasonably sure, we do not forget that defeat is among the possible contingencies. Our enemies are struggling with all the energy of desperation to retain their wonted hold upon power. They are making use of every conceivable agency in aid of their cause. Corruption heretofore unparalleled has been resorted to, and unnumbered millions of money, drawn really from the labor of the working masses, will be expended to purchase their continued submission to slavery. Remembering that defeat is possible, we cannot forbear rebuking the spirit manifested by those few Democrats who declare that "if we are beaten in this fight further resistance is useless." It is the mission of Democracy to contend for human rights and the liberties of the people at all times and forever, and that mission should never be forgotten by its followers. If we are beaten this fall, which God forbid, there is ten times greater reason why we should continue the contest with the enemies of popular liberty; why we should continue to interposes to the fullest extent of our power, the shield of Democracy between the nation and its oppressors.

A true Democrat will "never say die."—"Never surrender" should be the motto on our banner, and come victory, or come defeat, that banner should never be lowered. It is the symbol of right and justice in the administration of human government, and as sure as God reigns, it will yet wave in triumph over the land.

THE ASSASSINATION OF GEN. HINDMAN.

We publish below the full account of Gen. Hindman's assassination, already announced by telegraph. The Chicago Times very justly says:

In the frequent reports of "Southern outrages," in the Radical newspapers, one sees no indignation over the assassination of Gen. Hindman. There has not been a solitary howl among the Tribunes of the press over this occurrence.

Why is this so? Among all the tears which Radicals are weeping over riots which they have instigated, and over outrages which never had an existence, have they not a few to spare over the murder of Hindman? Had this Confederate general been a plantation negro, wordly, brainless, malicious, ignorant, and a Radical, there would have been raised a storm of indignation throughout the Radical North that would have convulsed things like a South American earthquake. It would have been somewhat, with reference to its justice, like the case of the rebel Wirz, who was ignominiously hanged, and the Radical scoundrel Joe Brown, who is now a Radical saint.

[From the Helena (Ark.) Clarion, Oct. 1.]

ASSASSINATION OF GEN. HINDMAN.

We are called upon to-day to chronicle one of the most tragic events which has ever cast its shadow over this community. Our distinguished fellow citizen Gen. Thos. C. Hindman has been suddenly laid low by the hand of an assassin. His life was taken last Sunday night, at half past 9 o'clock, as he sat quietly in his room surrounded by his family, under circumstances of the most horrible character. He was shot with an army musket, through the east window of the southeast room of his dwelling house, sitting by the fire and smoking. His left hand, in which he held his pipe, was torn away, and two balls passed through his neck, severing the windpipe and doing other injuries which produced copious internal bleeding.

The muzzle of the musket, from the powder burn on the window blind, was not exceeding eight feet from where he was sitting, and but for the accidental position of his hand near his chin, which diverted the aim of the shot, it would have almost blown his head from his shoulders. The boldness of the perpetrator of this bloody deed is amazing. It was a clear, moonlit night. A person could have been seen and almost recognized a hundred yards off. From whatever direction the two fiends may have approached, they retreated, after the commission of the crime, (as indicated by their tracks,) towards the road or street in front of the residence, where persons were apt to be passing at all hours. The tracks show two persons present, one of whom, from appearances, was a white man, but no clue has as yet been found fixing suspicion upon any particular individuals. It is thought that political malice was the cause, and that a hired villain struck the blow.

Gen. Hindman survived about eight hours, during which he conversed calmly in relation to business matters; spoke with touching beauty and affection of his wife and four little children who have been so inhumanly bereaved. He was conscious of his fate, rational to the end—which he met with sublime courage and resignation. Gen. Hindman was the great leader of the Democracy of this State, and was dealing such heavy blows against Radicalism as to mark him as its most formidable opponent. But whatever the motives which instigated this foul and dastardly deed, the state of the public mind and the violence done and threatened lead to the belief that he has fallen a victim to the vindictive party antagonism which menaces the peace of the country.

HIT THEM AGAIN.—The Utica (N. Y.) Observer say: "In the Massachusetts Methodist Conference yesterday the parsons sung 'Praise God from whom all blessings flow' in honor of the premature reports from Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, and threw in a few amens and hallelujahs because the anthem did not sufficiently express their joy. Men who pervert sacred hymns of praise to the gratification of the success of corrupt Radical politicians are pretty certain to do all their singing on earth. There'll be no singing (but plenty of stinging) in the place to which they will go."

NORTH CAROLINA!

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 18,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Losses paid in 30 days. No restrictions on TRAVEL or RESIDENCE. No extra charge for Females. No charge for Medical Examination, Policies or stamps.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is REMOTE, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,764, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. But in case that of the insured, in any office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or exceed that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full reduction of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

Age.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.	Age.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.
20	$14.92	$33.10	45	$28.67	$ 51.03
25	17.02	36.44	50	34.09	60.16
30	19.78	40.23	55	41.28	69.75
40	26.47	45.51	60	49.87	87.87

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan a greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent. of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and counties in said States. To first and energetic Agents, who are WILLING and ABLE to work, liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this result to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULDN'T HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. OUR GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN, THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO RETAIN SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTER IT THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN HAWK'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM ONION AND SHELLEY'S VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

TO DISTILLERS OF FRUIT.

For months, our small fruit distillers have had the rod of terror held over them, because the Internal Revenue officers of North Carolina were instructed, by the Radical Commissioner at Washington, Mr. Rollins, to demand of these small distillers $400 tax for distilling their fruit. Many, therefore, were deterred from saving their fruit. The clamors of the Democratic press of North Carolina aroused public attention, and some of our friends called the attention of the Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. McCulloch, to the matter, and, through his instrumentality, it was brought to the notice of the Attorney General.

The following telegram from Mr. Rollins to Mr. Helper, of Salisbury, published in the Old North State, shows the Attorney General's opinion. When it is too late to profit our small distillers, the meaning of the law is just reached. Read the telegram:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14, 1868.

To H. H. Helper:

In accordance with a decision of the Attorney General, rendered on the 10th. inst., distillers of brandy from apples are exempted from the special tax.

E. A. ROLLINS,
Commissioner Internal Revenue.

The whole distillation business is managed by the Radicals in the interest of the "Whiskey Ring,"—the large distillers of the North against the small whiskey and brandy distillers in our State. Our Western people are thus compelled to sell grain at ruinous prices, because of the unjust and onerous discrimination made by the Radical party against them, in favor of the large distillers North. Let our North Carolina farmers and distillers rebuke this partial legislation of the Radicals. If any of our fruit distillers have paid the $400 tax, let them at once appeal to the proper officers to have it refunded. The effect, however, of Mr. Rollins' construction of the law was to deter most of our people from distilling.

NO CHANGE IN CANDIDATES.

The marplots, who have been striving to rule off the present candidates of the Democratic party, will not succeed. The idea, we judge, is abandoned. Mr. Seymour *re*luctantly accepted. He is not anxious to serve, if the people want another, but will not consent to any change in the ticket, without changing the whole. He is right. Let the people rally to Seymour and Blair. All that is needed is the rallying of the people to the Constitution and the Union.

REGISTRATION in Wilmington, up to Saturday evening, footed up: Whites 219; Blacks 1,116. Our friends there are coming up but slowly to the work. Perhaps, they are only waiting, as the white men here are, for the mass of negroes to get through registering. But delays are dangerous. Our Wilmington cotemporaries are earnestly counselling the white men to do their duty. Our all is at stake! Register—REGISTER,—REGISTER!

HAVE YOU REGISTERED? If not, take one or two with you, and attend to it now—to-day!

THE ELECTIONS LAST WEEK—NO CAUSE FOR DESPONDENCY—THE DUTY OF NORTH CAROLINIANS.

As the returns come in slowly, they appear far more favorable to the Democratic party than the first telegraphic reports led us to apprehend.

The largest vote ever polled was cast in the three States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. In the first, in a vote of nearly 700,000, the majority, it is now stated, will not exceed, if it reaches, 8,000, and it is alleged that over 5,000 fraudulent and imperfect votes were given in Philadelphia alone,—which, with many others of the same sort throughout the State, being cast by hirelings from adjoining States, cannot be cast again at the Presidential election, as the voters will be needed at home. In this connection, it is significant to remark that, in 1840, at the October elections, the Democrats had a majority of 5,000, and yet, in the November election, the electoral vote of the State was given to Gen. Harrison.

In Ohio, it now turns out that the Radical majority, upon the largest estimates, will not much exceed 10,000. Eight thousand of that majority is made up of illegal negro voters, who were allowed, in Radical localities, to cast their ballots, in violation of the Constitution of Ohio, which inhibits negro suffrage. In addition to this, it is stated that the Jews, who are all opposed to Grant, on account of his obnoxious order, voted the local Radical ticket. The Cincinati Gazette, a journal of great discretion and ability, expresses gratification at the result, and avows great confidence in being able to carry the State at the Presidential election.

In Indiana, the Democracy have done nobly,—so well, that their success in November is assured. Mr. Hendricks is defeated by probably less than 1,000 votes, against a Radical majority, last year, of about 15,000. The gallant Voorhees is certainly elected to Congress.

The result is that, in the three States, casting about 1,400,000 votes, the Radicals have an artificial majority of only about 18,000,—13,000 of that number being composed of known illegal votes. Ten Democratic members of Congress have been gained, and some of the most bitter and malignant Radical leaders,—men like Ashley, Covode and others,—have been defeated.

As the Richmond Whig observes, the issue of these elections, viewed in the light of a mere reconnoissance in force, is a magnificent achievement. This result (it adds) has been accomplished where the State governments and State patronage were in the hands of our adversaries—where the Federal patronage was to a great extent exerted in the same direction—where the shoddyists and contractors, of every hue, who made money during the war, and where the whisky and all the other rings were co-operating.

Commenting on the result, the Washington Evening Express,—an excellent and reliable paper,—says:

"But this does not decide the Presidential election. In November the battle has to be fought over this whole Union. We shall then have a much fairer election than we had on Tuesday last. It is the duty of every earnest Democrat and Conservative to press on the good work. Now is the time for a renewed vigorous charge all along the line. Our friends must not for one moment mistrust the future. We are the party of the people, and embody the majority of that race which created the Government and upon whom alone its perpetuity depends. We must continue to stand together for the sake of the country and its free institutions. It will be impossible to overthrow them whilst we do so."

We say, therefore, to the Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina, that though there may be some room for discouragement, there is no ground for despondency. Our friends at the North, knowing the weak places to be strengthened and the feeble points to be fortified, will redouble their efforts to win victory to our banners. We see no evidences of unmanly yielding in that quarter, but, rather, everywhere, the cheering signs that the friends of Constitutional Union and Civil Liberty are re-forming their lines for a grand and vigorous charge upon the columns of the foe. It would be cowardly in us, in view of such an exhibition, to falter or to hesitate. Leaving out of consideration, entirely, the chances of a national triumph over the enemies of the Constitution, a victory in North Carolina is of paramount and vital importance to the true men and women of the State. They have seen the spirit of Radicalism in our midst, and its fell and infamous designs upon the peace, security and honor of the people,—its purpose to degrade and humiliate the decent portion of the white population, its wasteful and profligate extravagance, its official venality and corruption, its insults to our fair and virtuous women, its disposition to provoke violence and bloodshed,—and if they do not rise, in their majesty and might, to rebuke and exorcise this spirit, and show that THEY STILL RULE, our fate will be more deplorable, by far, in the future, than it has been in the past!

Paraphrasing the eloquent language of our cotemporary of the Petersburg Index, we would say: Gentlemen of North Carolina! Let your heroism be the heroism of hope, not the heroism of despair. Not the heroism of the Jewish warriors, who slaughtered each other amid the smoking ruins of their Temple, rather than surrender to the Roman conqueror—but the heroism of Marius, when, sitting solitary amid the ruins of Carthage, there arose the unconquerable purpose in his soul, which carried him in triumph to the gates of Rome, and crowned him with victory in the Capitol of the world!

Judge Pearson having sent the Editors of the Statesville American a message to support Grant and Colfax, they returned the favor by sending the Judge the speech of Judge Battle, to read, which quotes largely from Judge Pearson's decisions that North Carolina is a State, and as such needed no reconstruction.

REMEMBER that delays are dangerous. Therefore register, TO DAY. Your vote may be necessary to carry the State.

WEAK KNEES.

The remembrances of the past, as well as the prognostications of the future, with some men, always produce gloominess, timidity, and weak knees. This is true, without regard to the character of the principles or the cause they espouse. Such a weakness argues either a defective foundation for the basis of our belief or action, or a fundamental error in the character, or an unmanly timidity, which is never certain that you are right. An ignoramus will rely upon insufficient causes, or no cause at all, for his expectations. Desire, and the hope of good in the future, will keep up the expectations of such, without any basis to hope upon. An enthusiast will look for the end without the use of the means; hence, both of these parties are easily jostled or discouraged at every reverse. Men of sense and of virtue, too, will be jostled by bad news, even when they feel they are right, from an inmate proclivity to look always upon the dark side of things and to magnify the difficulties yet in the future. All of these classes are liable to discouragement, even from insufficient causes, and so discourage all around them.

What is needed is, first, know you are right. What are the two parties fighting for?—Which of them is contending for the people's rights, their rights under the Constitution? Read the platforms of both parties. Are not the Democrats contending for the Constitution, for the Union, for peace and harmony, for the rights of the people, under the Constitution? Are they not contending for equal taxation, low taxes, cheap money and economy in the government? Are they not against high taxes, high tariffs, high rates of interest? Are they not in favor of doing justice, humanity and right to the colored man, but, at the same time, claiming justice and humanity and right for the white man?

On the other hand, are not the Radicals contending against the people in favor of the office-holders, in favor of high taxes, high tariffs, a high rate of interest upon money, for unequal taxation, when they are willing to release the bond-holders from paying taxes? Are they not in favor of keeping the South down under military and negro rule? Are they not against the Constitution, and the rule of law and justice? Study their principles and action.

Now, if you feel and know you are right in supporting the Democracy, then hold up your head and look for better days! Let no discouragements dampen your ardor. North Carolina and the country must be redeemed. The right is not always successful. Truth and right may be crushed for awhile, but they must triumph at last. North Carolina demands that every man shall do his duty in this crisis. Will you do it?

STATE ITEMS.

There will be a grand mass meeting of the Conservative Democracy of Warren, at Warrenton, on the 31st. inst. Ample arrangements have been made to secure a great success.

Joseph Brendle, of Haywood Co., who is announced, in the Woman Insulter, as a member of the Executive Radical Committee of that county, declares for Seymour and Blair.

The Asheville News announces the withdrawal from the "Union League" of eleven more citizens of Buncombe. They all declare for Seymour and Blair.

The citizens of Asheville, as we learn from the News, were startled on Friday night last, by a very sensible shock of an earthquake, which lasted nearly a minute. The noise was like the rumbling of carriage wheels, while the earth trembled with a vibrating motion. It caused some consternation among the people, but the occurrence was so sudden, and passed off so quickly, that but few could appreciate that it was a faint specimen of the convulsion which lately engulfed whole cities and 35,000 of their inhabitants along the coast of Peru and Equador.

A great Democratic Mass-Meeting will be held at Coddle Creek, Cabarrus county, on Friday, 30th. October, to which the citizens of Iredell, Cabarrus, Rowan and Mecklenburg, without distinction of party, are invited to be present. Able and eloquent Speakers will be present to address the people upon the affairs of the country. A good time may be expected.

The mass meeting at Statesville, on the 29th., promises to be one of the greatest demonstrations of the campaign. The people of North Carolina are not dismayed.—They will do their whole duty, we believe, whatever others may do.

P. F. Duffy, Esq., is in the mountains, and has accepted invitations to address the people of Madison and Mitchell. He is a gallant gentleman and is doing gallant service.

The Charlotte Bulletin says that, on Saturday night last, the train which conveyed the troops from Goldsboro' to Charlotte, soon after landing her passengers, took her departure for the Shops, notwithstanding it had been made known that a special train, conveying a Circus Company, was en route for Charlotte. The consequence was a collision, the two engines smashed, one of the hands lost a leg and several others are said to have been badly bruised. Who is responsible, asks the Bulletin?

DISCUSSION IN WILMINGTON.—A discussion took place in Wilmington, on Saturday night, between O. H. Dockery, the Radical candidate for Congress in the Third District, and Col. R. H. Cowan. The Journal says:

"The greatest order prevailed during the whole discussion. Those who heard the speech of Dockery on Wednesday night are pretty fully conversant with the tenor, argument and allusions of that last night.—Col. Cowan's speech was a fine common sense talk, argumentative to a degree and containing illustrations perfectly comprehensive to the entire audience. It abounded with much good advice and friendly feeling to the negroes. This portion of the assembly listened with respect and attention, and when advised to frown down anything like riotous disturbances—to their credit be it said—cheered him loudly."

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

PRAIRIE HOME, ILLINOIS, Oct. 15, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—It is a common saying that "out of sight out of mind," but that is not the case with me. I cannot forget my native State, although I have been from there ten years. My mind often reverts back to those pleasant hills and valleys, and to the good friends and people that I left behind. My heart always exults at the mention of the good old North State, and I am free to say that it is dearer to me than any other place under the sun; and whenever I meet a North Carolinian, I hail him as a brother.

But with all my fondness for my native State and her citizens, I must confess that, of late, I have had cause to lament that there are some within her borders, that have placed themselves without the pale of the church, and have forfeited, in my view, all their right and title as good and loyal subjects. (Although they profess to be extremely "loil.")

I am (to say the least) astonished at the course of Messrs. Pearson, Reade, Boyden, Dockery, and a few others, who have ignored the principles they used to profess and the position they formerly occupied, have sold themselves to the scallawags and carpet baggers and have become dirt-eaters, for the sake of office, under the meanest government that ever cursed any people.

We used to delight to honor these men and place them in high positions, when they stood aloof from such principles as they now stoop to carry out. But as for Holden, we always considered him as going at the highest bidder,—that there was nothing too low for him, in politics or anything else. I ask pardon for mentioning his name and will say no more about him.

I see that Judge Pearson expresses the opinion that if Seymour and Blair are elected, that we will have war. Who does he suppose will make war? Not the Democrats and Conservatives, for they will be in the majority, and will have no need of war. It war is made at all, it will have to come from his adopted party, who are so fond of war. I believe they are in favor of war, and why do they want war? Those of them who desire war can have no other reason than to plunder, but they will get disappointed, as we expect to elect Seymour and Blair, and thereby give peace and tranquility to our distressed and distracted country.

I take great pleasure in saying to my old Carolina friends, that we expect to put down this no principle party, on the third day of November, at the ballot box; and if they want to make war, let them do it if they dare! The West is all alive to the work, and Seymour and Blair is the watch-word everywhere. It is now generally understood that Indiana will vote for Seymour and Blair. We have got them very much alarmed in Illinois; they are working with all their powers, but still they come over by hundreds and thousands to the Democratic party. The Democrats are doing yeoman service in this State. Then I say to my old Carolina friends, work, rally, rout the vandals, and drive the carpet baggers back to their native dens! Look well to the South.

AN OLD CAROLINIAN.

BE ON THE ALERT, friends of Seymour and Blair! See that all our friends REGISTER AND VOTE!

For the Sentinel.

[TRANSLATION.]

MADRID, SPAIN, Oct. 1, 1868.

Robt. M. Douglas, Esq., Resident of Washington, Citizen of Illinois, Secretary to the Governor, (so called,) of North Carolina General Orator of the United States, Colonel of Militia, &c.:

Your eloquent speech, made some time since at Wake Court House, has reached me, viz. Hong Kong, where it had been translated from the Congo into the Chinese language. Previously, however, it had been translated into French, German, and seventeen other languages. In all these translations, I fear its force and beauty have been impaired. I, therefore, request that you will transmit me an original copy of it, in English, to Madrid, Spain.

Aside from the eloquence of your speech, I am personally interested in its facts, logic, &c. My lamented father died about the year 1861, leaving his dying injunction to me to support the Constitution and laws of Spain. In this you may discover a resemblance between my case and your own.

Now the Constitution and laws of my country have been overthrown, and a new Constitution and laws established, and I have been an active participant in establishing them. If I can show the fact that the Constitution and laws now in force are the same he bade me preserve and maintain, then I am entitled to the most desirable estates and the highest office and honors in the kingdom. If otherwise, I fear my case is hopeless.

Now you show, conclusively, that notwithstanding a bloody revolution in your country has overthrown the Constitution and laws, which your dying father enjoined you to support, you are now maintaining the new Constitution and laws which make a radical change, and are at the same time supporting the old Constitution and laws, you were bound by his dying request to maintain.

Your logic appears conclusive in your case, and yet when I attempt to apply it to mine, I can not make it fit. How is it?—Logic must be logic, the world over. At one time, I was a believer in the old and long established axiom that "it is impossible for a thing to be and not to be at the same time," but to you, Sir, is posterity to be indebted for overthrowing that old rusty axiom, and establishing, in its place, the novel, brilliant and logical one, that "it is possible for a thing to be and not to be at the same time."

In consequence of your multifarious duties and uncertain whereabouts, I have this translated into English, and will have it published in the Gazettes of your country, that it may meet your eye and early attention. It is suggested that you are a very young man and perhaps not the author of the speech delivered by you; in that case, will you please call upon Governor Holden or Judge Settle, who are believed to be its true authors, to explain the logic?

For God and my country!

DON DE ESPERANZA.

P. S. Please send me the most approved pattern of a carpet bag, as I may have to leave here soon; and, if so, I shall be at your service.

A good place in the Revenue would be acceptable, and next to that an office in the Militia.

ESPERANZA.

REGISTER! Do not forget it. Every thing depends upon your registration and your vote.

AGENTS WANTED.—The first number of the Carolina Farmer, shortly to be published by Mr. W. H. Bernard, Wilmington, is now in press. Send the small sum of fifteen cents for a specimen number, containing a splendid list of Premiums for new subscribers. Active Agents are making from $5 to $10 per day, and others are wanted. Address Wm. H. Bernard, Proprietor, Wilmington, N. C.

NEW BOOK OF POEMS.—Our gifted young townsman, Theo. H. Hill, the charming creations of whose Muse have made him an enviable reputation in the field of Poesy, proposes to publish, at an early day, a volume of his Poems,—embracing many which have heretofore delighted the public, together with other beautiful gems from his fruitful repertoire. The book will be issued only by subscription, at the low price of $1,50; and we do hope that Mr. Hill may be encouraged, by a generous popular appreciation, to pursue the bent of his fine genius. The Wilmington Star, in noticing Mr. Hill's proposals, says:

"In the present instance, not only the love of literature, but that State pride which is one of the chief characteristics of us as a people, are strongly appealed to, and the citizens of Wilmington should not be behind-hand in coming to aid the author in his enterprise."

IMPORTANT TO VOTERS.

In the election in this State, to come off on the 3rd of November next, it is important for voters to understand that they must vote where they register, unless they obtain a certificate from the Registrar, that they have registered at a given precinct. This is the law in the case, taken from the "Act to provide for the registration of voters:"

"SEC. 11. The Registrar of voters shall, at the request of any legal registered voter in his precinct, furnish to such voter under his signature a certificate of registration, stating the County and precinct in which such voter is registered, and shall make an entry of such certificate against the name of such voter on the registration book. Upon such certificate of registration, such elector may vote in any precinct in his County, without further registration.

SEC. 12. Upon receiving such vote, the Judges of election shall fold such certificate of registration with the ballot of the elector offering to vote thereupon, and deposit it with the ballot in the ballot box."

Remember that every voter must have been a resident of this State twelve months preceding the day of election, and a resident of the County, in which he votes, thirty days before the election.

HAYWOOD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

At the late election in Haywood county, four Conservative candidates for Commissioners received a majority of votes and one tied with his opponent. The four elected qualified, but it was afterwards discovered that only two were eligible to office. According to the ethics of honesty, and a decent respect for the voice of the people, the "so-called" Governor could only appoint three Commissioners, but as the two elected and eligible were Conservatives, Holden paid no attention to right and justice, and has appointed the whole five, according to his political faith. Such infamous usurpation will not go much longer unrebuked. It is but part and parcel of the Radical programme to insult the people and disregard their voice at the ballot box.—Asheville News.

A similar charge against this "Gov." Holden was brought by the people of Nash. A Commissioner was elected by the people who was every way eligible and qualified, but was over-slaughed and ignored by 'Gov.' Holden, and another appointed in his place, for no other reason, so far as the public know, than that he was a Democrat. It will be seen, above, that he has been guilty of the same conduct in Haywood. Is this what he calls peace? Is this what he calls fairness and honesty? The people will remember this.

A WORD TO THE PEOPLE.

We have, heretofore, intimated, upon the strength of common rumor, that the State authorities had instructed the Registrars Poll-keepers, &c., to have the tickets printed on one ballot for Electors, Members of Congress and Members of the Legislature, all to be voted in one box. This plan is contrary to law, and we now learn, from good authority, that the State authorities have issued no such order, and will not do so.

The following opinion, from several legal gentlemen in this city, ought to satisfy every one, that it is illegal to put all the names in one box, and that such a course will vitiate the election. We therefore call upon the people, Registrars, Poll-holders, &c., to hold the election according to law. No body has a right to order any other course than the law points out. There should be a box for Electoral tickets, one for members of Congress, and one for members of Legislature.

For convenience, the printers may print them together and they will cost less, but every voter can easily cut them apart.—Read the following:

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 19th, 1868.

In our view there is nothing in the Ordinances of the late Convention, or in the acts of the last session of the General Assembly, that repeals the provisions of law heretofore in force as regards the number of boxes required in case candidates for different offices are voted for at the same place and on the same day.

We are therefore of opinion that at the approaching election the candidates for Congress, for Electors of President, and for such vacancies in the General Assembly as may exist, should be voted for in separate boxes,—one box or one set of boxes for each office.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PROSPECT.

Now that the smoke of battle has lifted from the field of last Tuesday's encounter, we can more clearly observe the result, estimate the losses and gains, and draw the balance between them. From our standpoint as unengaged observers upon the edge of the battle, but not in the field, we can more calmly and accurately do this than if we were participants in the conflict.

In none of the three great central States have we received any damage at all comparable to the advantages we have secured. We have not routed the enemy from his strongholds, but the reconnoissance we have made upon his works has infused into his mind a wholesome fear of our forces, and has enabled us to ascertain the strength of his numbers and the salients of his situation. It has also shown us where our own lines need strengthening and in what our plans are defective. Profiting by this knowledge, we have only to apply remedies where remedies are needed, and add strength where more strength is required, and we will as surely win the great battle in November as November comes. As we have heretofore observed, the contest of last Tuesday, according to the popular comprehension, had too much the character of a sectional issue to succeed upon the fields on which it was fought. In Pennsylvania the people were made to believe that they were fighting over again the battle of Gettysburg, and in Ohio they thought they were resisting Morgan's raid again. The only wonder is, in view of these persistent misrepresentations of the Radicals, that the Democracy came as near winning as they did.

One thing above all others gives us occasion to rejoice. We have made very considerable gains in the Congressional representation. In Pennsylvania we have gained four members of Congress, in Ohio we have gained three, and in Indiana two—nine in all. So that out of the fifty-four members of the next Congress, elected in these three States, we shall have certainly twenty one, and probably one or two more, nine of whom are clear gains, not quite one half, but over one third. If the Democrats had numbered one third of the last and the present Congress, the President's vete could not have been over ridden, and rampant Radicalism would have been powerless to put upon the South the infamous measures of negro suffrage "reconstruction." In this view of the result it is refreshing to see that in the event of Grant's election the Radicals of the school of Wendell Phillips, Theodore Tilton and Beast Butler may not triumph, because they may not then have the two-thirds vote in Congress to enable them to make Grant "a tool, not a leader," as they have made Mr. Johnson, unless he chooses to be so.

Yet in no sense do we think that the result of last Tuesday's elections indicates the election of Grant as a foregone conclusion. It must be confessed that there is much in them to disappoint the sanguine supporters of Democracy, but it is equally certain that they really contain little else to gratify the Radicals, unless, indeed, it be "that strange spell—a name." During the next fifteen days let the Democracy work like men in every locality, and they will once more illustrate their certain strength and thus "pluck the flower, safety, from the nettle, danger."

The Wickedest General.

GOV. VANCE, OF NORTH CAROLINA, IMPALES KILPATRICK.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., 13th Oct. 1868.

To the Editor of the World.—SIR:—I see by the public prints that Gen. Kilpatrick has decorated me with his disapprobation before the people of Pennsylvania. He informs them, substantially, that he tamed me by capturing me and riding me two hundred miles on a bare-back mule. I will do the gentleman the justice to say that he knew that was a lie when he uttered it. I surrendered to Gen. Schofield, at Greensboro, N. C., on the 2d of May, 1865, who told me to go to my home and remain there, saying if he got any orders to arrest me he would send there for me.

Accordingly I was arrested on the 13th of May at my home by a detatchment of 300 cavalry under Major Potter, of Harrisburg, of whom I received nothing but kindness and courtesy. I came in a buggy to Salisbury, where we took the cars. I saw no mule on the trip, though I thought I saw an ass at the General's headquarters. This impression has been since confirmed.

The General no doubt remembers, among other incidents of the war, the dressing up of a strumpet—who assisted him in putting down the rebellion—in the uniform of an orderly and introducing her into a respectable family of ladies in a certain village in North Carolina. This, and other feats of arms and strategy, so creditable to the uniform he wore and the flag under which he served, would, no doubt, have been quite as amusing as the mule story to his hearers. I wonder he forgot it.

Respectfully yours,
Z. B. VANCE.

"DOG EAT DOG."

Tourgee and Windy Billy have it at last! I saw the fight, and it was more amusing than any dog fight that ever I saw—and so interesting, too, for a Democrat to sit off at a distance and coolly observe them as they tore each other's hair, and gouged at each other's eyes! The scene was truly refreshing to my "rebellious" heart. But let me describe the fracas:

Scene: On the cars going east from Charlottee—midnight—two or three ladies, six or eight scallawags and a few Democrats on board. Windy Billy fast asleep, wrapped in his shawl, head thrown back, mouth wide open, and his fiery spirit wandering in the land of dreams.

Train stops at Salisbury. Tourgee walks in and takes his seat, in the back part of the coach, a safe distance, as he fancied, from his sleeping enemy. The whistle blows and off go the cars.

Windy Billy wakes up—yawns—rubs his eyes, and, looking around behind him, espies the redoubtable hero, Tourgee.—Straightway, Windy's dander rises, and, with heroic determination, he walks right up to Tourgee, and with flashing eye, and burning cheek, "sir," says he, "I hear you have been a slanderin' of me and casting reflections upon my character. Is it true, sir?"

Tourgee, with coolness: "I have said nothing false about you, sir. Besides, I don't know to what you allude."

Windy B.—(with fiery indignation:)—"I demand, sir, that you retract. You've insulted me."

Tourgee.—"I'll not retract."

Windy.—"You are a d—d scoundrel, and here's at you."

And, with this, Windy, with the fierceness of a tiger, bounced the Judge, whose equilibrium was seriously disturbed by this unexpected onset. They knocked, and gouged, and pulled at each other's hair—like two fice dogs—tumbling about over the seats, and arousing all the sleeping scallawags—the venerable Comptroller, Bad-ham, and several other small fry—who rushed up to separate the infuriated combatants.—But they wouldn't stop, but "fit and fit on," till the Conductor came and ordered them to "down, dogs! and stop your fighting."

It was, though, with great difficulty, that Windy Billy was kept from renewing the combat, so enraged was he.

Finally, Tourgee, apparently sufficiently amused, resumed his seat, but Windy Billy continued belligerent and thus delivered himself, with as much self possession as he could command:

"Mr Tourgee, you are a mean, infamous, miserable, dirty scoundrel"; to which Tourgee nodded assent.

Again, says Windy: "Mr. Tourgee, for fear you misunderstand me, I will repeat—and, gentlemen, please bear witness to what I say,—Mr. Tourgee, you are a mean, infamous, miserable, dirty scoundrel."

"Yes, sir," responded the valiant knight of Sing Sing.

"You are infamous in everything,' continued the irrepressible Windy.

"Go on, Mr. Henderson," sadly ejaculated the Judge.

"You are a d—d Penitentiary bird—you infamous scoundrel. Now if you were a gentleman you would resent the insult."

"Yes, sir," replied Tourgee.

"You a Judge, and pretending to be a white man,—take that, you infamous scoundrel," continued Windy, with a contemptuous sneer.

The cars now arrived at McLean's Station—whereupon Windy dared Tourgee to go out and fight it out,—the Conductor having given them permission to fight outside of the ladies' coach. But, Tourgee respectfully declined the combat, and swallowed all the insults heaped upon him.

All became quiet once more and the cars rolled on to Hillsboro, when the Judge got off—he being on his way to Person Court. "O! mores! O! tempora." What a blessing if they had broken each other's necks!

SUMAC, &c.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I saw in your paper, some few days since, the expression of a desire to publish something about the preparation of Sumac leaves for market. I have made inquiries of large houses, who both use and deal in it, and offer the same to you:

The leaves should be picked or clipped from the bush, just before the berries ripen—when they have their full growth and are fresh and green. Some little of the leaf stem does not hurt the quality, but care should be taken to have no woody stem.—The leaves should be sun dried and kept from exposure to rain. When fully dried, they should be threshed and riddled to acquire sufficient fineness. It is not necessary to grind them for this market. Thus perpared, they are worth about $60 per ton here. Should be packed in bales or bags for market. For a foreign market, they require to be ground, and, also, for some uses here. North River Sumac, prepared as above, is worth about $30 per ton—the Southern containing more tannin.—The berries are used as a dye to some extent, and, for that purpose, should be fully ripe and then dried and ground.

The House, with which I am connected, does not deal in any of these articles; hence, I am not advertising myself at your expense, but hope to see North Carolinians make something from what has heretofore been a waste, as the blackberries were once in the Guilford and Forsyth section. Every article sent to market, home or foreign, sells the better for being well prepared. Neat packages have a great effect, too, as every producer of Spirits of Turpentine knows.

I have often thought that the people of the South, generally, might make money by growing the Castor Bean. The price is generally firm at $2, or a little less, per bushel. I have received full information from Illinois as to its growth and preparation for market, and, as soon as I can put it in shape, shall lay it before my old friends, and any others who may choose to avail themselves of it. There are many things long considered waste or of little use, South, which sell here for one purpose or another, and, as the liberal Railroad system of the State is developed, it will open new enterprises and new lands, raising valuation and increasing population. No State of the Union possesses so many natural resources and she only requires good means of communication with the world to have them fully and profitably developed.

Respectfully,
HENRY E. COLTON.

FROM WASHINGTON—HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR TO TAKE THE FIELD.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20, P. M.

Gen. Wm. Preston, of Kentucky, has been pardoned.

Many applications for Gen. Hooker's vacancy. General Stoneman is the most favored candidate.

Grant is in Galena. No intimation of his return.

One Company of regular Infantry has been sent to Phillippi, in West Virginia.

A dispatch announces that Governor Seymour will take the stump—making his first speech of the campaign at Buffalo, N. Y., to-morrow.

Revenue to-day, $225,000.

The pressure for a partial change of the candidates (Vice Presidential) continues and rather gains strength. Both the New York World and the Washington Intelligencer persist in urging the change. To-day's World says:

"It was our wish then, and it is our determination now, that the views of Governor Seymour, and not those attributed by the Republicans to General Blair, should be regarded as the basis of the campaign on the Democratic side. Tens of thousands of credulous citizens, who incline toward the Democratic party, have been retained in the Republican ranks by the "Raw Head and Bloody Bones" of another civil war. The absurdity of this bugbear led us to under estimate the capacity for mischief. It is astonishing that anybody could have believed that the Democratic party meant to disperse the negro Legislatures by the Federal Army, but if is not at all surprising that those, who did so believe, should vote against us. As it was some imprudent expressions of General Blair, that gave color to this foolish fear, his withdrawal is the shortest way to correct the misapprehension."

FROM CHARLESTON—EXCITEMENT AMONG THE NEGROES.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 20, P. M.

Considerable excitement prevails among the colored population, on account of the murder of Randolph, who was well known here.

News was received, to-day, that, in Newberry, on Sunday, a party of negroes fired on two white men, wounding one of them. Next day, a negro, who was supposed to be the leader of the assailants, was shot and killed by unknown parties.—This intelligence has increased the excitement, and a meeting of the colored people is called for to-morrow night, to decide what measures are to be taken regarding these disorders.

NOTICE.

THE OFFICE OF THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE Co. has been removed to the upper rooms over the Clothing Store of Messrs Andrews & Co., and adjoining the Messrs. Tucker's Hall, where the public are invited to an examination of all the official Reports of the various Insurance Companies of America. Their progress and standing may thus be easily and reliably ascertained. The progress of the old Ætna as thus to be seen, will not fail to secure confidence and patronage of those desiring to provide for themselves or families. This Company has promptly met over sixty thousand dollars in death losses in North Carolina within three years. And, as a guarantee for the future, has now assets over and one hundred and thirty dollars to pay every one hundred of her liabilities. To the weary and anxious enquirer for a place of safe investment, call while in health and strength upon the subscriber and obtain from $1,000 to $20 000. Delays are often fatal.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some to back again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but screw, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

than any three other exhibitions combined.

The ENTERTAINMENTS of THIS CIRCUS are presented to its patrons surrounded by the attributes of respectability and elegance, and promised of all objectionable features.

The present tour of STONE & MURRAY'S CIRCUS will convince all those who attend its exhibitions that it is worthy of the claim of being

"The Best in the World."

☞ STONE & MURRAY'S CIRCUS travels entirely by Railroad, on special Trains; therefore, it makes no attempt to deceive the public by a parade of empty wagons drawn by weary horses, but its Exhibitions, which are generally acknowledged by all the leading journals of the country to be to those of any other Circus will be given

On a Scale of Grandeur,

and with such BRILLIANT EFFECT, that they will be events long to be remembered by every patron.

To make the announced Exhibitions unprecedentedly successful and attractive, pledge themselves to redeem every promise of excellence, feeling confident that their extra large Troupe will excite the admiration and fulfill the expectations of their patrons.

STONE & MURRAY

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That no this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this state, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the states by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is required for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burdens of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

"In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military bills and secret war chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of espionage and official repression, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has usurped the functions of the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and right of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and is sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a state centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the State will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of by limiting the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit, and its meaning as the living issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined; and with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary result coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of designated partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking reconstruction on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we go so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places, under the protection of its flag; to reanimate the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Au. 14, 1868.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL, WILMINGTON, N. C.
